Worship & Rest

“The one who entered God’s rest also rested from his own works.”
- Hebrews 4:10

As I’m writing this, it feels like Halloween is everywhere – pumpkins, ghosts, skeletons, and candy! If you’re like me, you may have noticed that Halloween is a much bigger holiday than it used to be. And you’re not wrong! It’s estimated that Americans spent roughly $13.1 billion on Halloween this year, and that’s almost double what it was in 2015!

Now, I love Halloween as much as the next person. But the growth of Halloween as a holiday – and the seemingly ever-earlier creeping of the Christmas season into November and even October – means that the last three months of the year can feel a little overwhelming. And our church life is no exception! While the fun activities we offer for fellowship and community outreach are crucial to our ministry, it can be easy, especially this time of year, to forget that church is also a place to encounter God and rest in God’s gracious presence.

Maybe it’s a good thing, then, that our sermon series through the month of November will largely be focused on worship – what we do when we gather together in the sanctuary every week. David and I will be preaching about the deeper spiritual aspects of Christian worship, but I think it’s important to remember that the Sabbath is also for rest. I think we can encounter God with the sacred acts of wonder, joy, truth, and hope while also being reminded that resting is a sacred act.

So I encourage us all to find one or two moments during worship, each Sunday in November, to pause and find some of that holy rest. As the skeletons get replaced by turkeys and the turkeys by Santas, I pray that the holiday busyness can be put on hold for an hour or so each week. May our worship be a time of rest, renewal, and rejuvenation for everyone who walks through our doors.

Blessings,

Amy

Annual Meeting

BACC Annual Congregational Meeting Sunday, November 2nd after late worship

Dear Bon Air Christian Church,

I hope you are all doing well and enjoying the beautiful Fall weather. .

I am writing to announce that we will be having our annual congregational meeting on November 2 after the 11 o'clock service, and to invite you to please attend.

We will be voting on our 2026 budget, which was proposed by our stewardship committee and approved by our board at this past Sunday's meeting, as well as our slate of officers, elders, deacons and trustees as proposed by our nominating committee. This will be your opportunity to ask any questions and have any discussion needed before we vote.

I want to thank the stewardship and nominating committees for all of their work to get these proposals together!

This has been a very busy year at BACC, and Fall is the time of year when our church activities ramp up as the holidays rapidly approach. I encourage you to watch our weekly newsletters for activities that interest you and for ways you can help us serve our church, our community, and Christ!

I want to thank each and every one of you for all you do to support our church and each other. We are truly blessed to have this wonderful place to worship and our BACC family.

Yours in Christ's love,

Scott

THANKSGIVING SPECIAL OFFERING

The Thanksgiving Special Offering benefits the colleges, universities, seminary, and divinity houses affiliated with the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ). Higher education has been an important focus for disciples since the very beginning of the movement.

Throughout our history, Disciples have founded institutions of higher learning to educate students and form leaders to make a difference in the world, including the University of Lynchburg, Barton College, and Lexington Theological Seminary. The Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) is still committed to higher education.

Your gift to the Thanksgiving Offering helps support the education of thousands of students at our 15 colleges and universities, as well as our seven seminary and divinity houses. It also supports the HELM Leadership Fellows which includes BACC's own, Emily Rucker!

We will receive the Thanksgiving Special Offering on November 23rd and 30th.

WORSHIP COMMITTEE UPDATE

As David has said, many times, there is lots going on in the life of the church. Nothing could be more-true for Worship in regards to the decorating of the church for the Advent season.

With Thanksgiving coming later this year, Thursday, November 27th, that leaves only three days to get the decorations up from the basement and ready for display. Advent decorating is planned for the afternoon of Sunday, November 30th. We welcome help from everyone. An All-Hands-on Deck approach is needed.

WORSHIP LEADERS & GREETERS:

We are in need of Worship Leaders (individuals to lead the congregation through the Words of Assurance, Lord's Prayer, and 1st Reading) along with Greeters (greeting guests with their warmth and smiles). A link to this sign-up program has been included for your convenience:

The Chili Cook-off is almost here: Saturday, November 15, 2025. The event will be held in the fellowship hall following the Saturday evening service (about 6:00 pm). This will be our CWF fund raiser for the year. The final decision of where the money is going has not been made.

If you would like to enter a chili, please email Jamie McDonald. Last minute entries are also welcome. You do not have to be a member of BACC to enter. We also ask that you provide a list of ingredients so people with allergies will know if it is safe for them to taste. Winners will be announced in the December newsletter.

We will also be having a silent auction that night. You can get started on your Christmas shopping. If you would like to donate anything for the auction, email Arlene Giffel.

Please mark your calendars and plan to attend a great evening of fun, food, and fellowship. You will be doing good ~ See you on the 15th!

Intergenerational Ministry

YOUTH

It's been a busy few weeks for the youth of BACC. We had a great Fall Fun event where we had lunch at Frank & Diane Clark's house, and then went to the Chesterfield Berry Farm for pumpkins, hayrides, corn maize and "all things Fall!" And we had another WONDERFUL Trunk or Treat where we welcomed the community, handed out tons of candy and had a great time with themed trunks and cute costumes! Thanks to all who made these events so special for our children!

CHRISTMAS PAGEANT SIGN-UP – SOMETHING FOR EVERYONE!

We still need about THREE YOUTH or ADULT ACTORS to take on some speaking parts in our intergenerational Christmas pageant! You don't have to memorize lines (unless you really want to), and the rehearsal schedule will be super light. Please contact Pastor Amy to sign up for a part and get more info: amyoblinger@baccdoc.org

Also... Younger kids will, as they have in the past, learn a Christmas song or two during Sunday School in the weeks leading up to December 21st. There will also be plenty of opportunities for folks who prefer to work behind the scenes. More details coming soon!

CCHASM THANKSGIVING EVENT

Our Thanksgiving meal bag event will be held on Saturday, November 22, at the Chesterfield County Fairgrounds exhibition center. This year, our goal is to serve 3,500 families.

Provide a Thanksgiving Meal with a $20 Grocery Gift Card

Each family served receives a grocery gift card to purchase a turkey or protein of their choice. We rely on your generous donations to make this possible. Please consider donating $20 grocery store gift cards (Walmart, Kroger, Food Lion, or other area stores). You can also donate funds directly to CCHASM for this purpose.

Pack a bag with non-perishable items*

Each Thanksgiving gift package includes non-perishable staples like canned vegetables, mashed potatoes, and stuffing. A full list is available at cchasm.org/pledge. Your donation of complete meal bags ensures families receive a thoughtful and filling holiday meal.

*There will be some groups at BACC assembling bags. If you are interested in helping, contact Diane Clark. Thank you for your continued support!

What's Happening

ADVENT DEVOTIONALS

As we prepare our hearts for the coming of Christ, we invite you to take part in a special BACC tradition—our Advent Devotional Book. Each year, members of our congregation write reflections that inspire and bless others throughout this sacred season.

This year, you have two meaningful ways to contribute:

1. Write a devotional based on the suggested scripture for the day (see below), or
2. Share a story about a time when God surprised you—a moment when His presence or grace caught you off guard in a beautiful way.

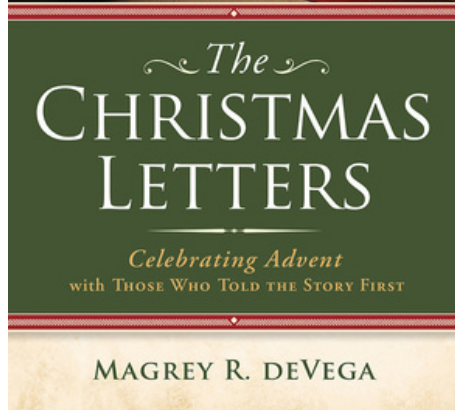

Of course, you can always pick a favorite scripture as well.

A short devotion is ~ 1/2 of a letter size paper or ~3 paragraphs. It includes a brief reflection on scripture or theme, offers spiritual insight, encouragement, and a moment to connect with God through prayer.

You can sign up in your weekly “Church News” email or call the church office. Devotions are due NOVEMBER 14th.

ADVENT BOOK STUDY

This Advent, we'll be studying The Christmas Letters by Magrey DeVega. Pastor DeVega explores the miracle of the Incarnation from a perspective we don't often highlight during this season: the New Testament Epistles of Romans, 1 John, Philippians, and Colossians. You're invited to read these as your first “Christmas Letters” of the season, and find within them an invitation from God to deepen your understanding of the Incarnation and embrace a fuller commitment to Jesus Christ.

The study will take place over three weeks, with the option of either a Wednesday online study (beginning at 7:05 p.m., using the same Zoom link as Prayer & Fellowship) or a Thursday in-person study (beginning at 10:30 p.m. and meeting in the church library). The dates for the study will be Dec 3&4, Dec 10&11, and Dec 17 & 18.

We won't meet for the study on Dec 24th - we have other plans that evening!

Thank You

On October 11, 2025, BACC hosted the 23rd annual Bagpipe Concert with performances by Bud Deihl and Chance Bell, which was followed by Susan Deihl's legendary feast. As always, the house was packed with audience members from all walks of the community and friends from other states. It is a time of joyful sharing and an opportunity for many to be introduced not only to bagpipe music, but also to Bon Air Christian Church and the Disciples of Christ ministry. The concert and reception are always free, but donations are accepted for Week of Compassion. This year, we received just over $1,100 in donations.

The Bagpipe concert is one of the largest events held in the church and requires a lot of planning and work before, during and after. To borrow a phrase, "It takes a village." We want to thank BACC for hosting the event and particularly want to thank each of you who helped in any way.

When we put out the call for help, members of the BACC community and other friends once again responded in unbelievable ways. At last count, we had over 20 volunteers and we know that many helped indirectly. You all helped us set up, work in the kitchen, add special food to the table, greet guests, clean up and pack at the end of the night. We are most grateful. We are already looking forward to the 24th Annual Bagpipe Concert in October of 2026 and hope you will be able to join us.

Thank You

BACC friends,

We truly appreciate your love and prayers over the last couple of years as Doug's Dad courageously battled cancer. While we mourn greatly our loss, we have found much comfort in all your cards and support. We are blessed to be part of this loving Church family.

With love and gratitude,

Doug, Sandy, Caitlynn & Cassie Collins

Dear Bon Air Christian Church congregation,

Thank you all so much for the wonderful celebration of life for Aunt Wanda (Wanda Russell). Thank you for the wonderful service, food and flowers. The family appreciates all of the cards and kind words. I think she would've loved it.

I know she is at peace at her beloved church. Thank you all so much!

Love in Christ,

Dawn Harrison, Jason Russell and family

Dear Friends,

I want to thank you for your faithful support of Disciples Mission Fund. Your generosity through DMF supports the work and ministries at Disciples Home Missions and we are so grateful. Your contributions ensure that DHM's ministries continue and thrive in countless ways – from supporting congregations and leadership development to outreach, justice, and care across the Church.

Enclosed you will find the Disciples Home Missions 2024–2025 mission report (on back bulletin board at church), which highlights just a few of the many ministries and lives touched by your giving. We are deeply grateful for your partnership in this shared ministry!

With gratitude and blessings,

The Rev. Bernard “Chris” Dorsey, President and CEO

*"The Lord gives strength to his people; the Lord blesses his people with peace."
– Psalm 29:11*

Thank You

Dear Friend,

Thank you for your generous gift of $300 given to the Youth Life Foundation of Richmond. Thank you for your support of the Youth Life Foundation of Richmond. Your gift will go towards the Youth Life Learning Centers of Richmond, offering unparalleled opportunities to our students in Richmond, Virginia. We thank you for your gracious donation.

You are leaving a legacy of hope in the lives of young people being reached through our learning centers. I thank you for your faithful support. Thank you again for your partnership!

God Bless,

Heather Goodlett, Founder and Executive Director

Personal note: Thank you so much for giving to YLFR. We are doing well, I recently have subbed in 4th-5th grade and they are showing a love for scripture and asking for Bibles. It has been my joy to share Bibles with them. I just love to see them reading, especially God's word!

Dear David,

Thank you for Bon Air Christian Church's recent gift of $900 to Richmond Metro Habitat for Humanity. Your support enables families like Yoqueta's to provide a safe and healthy home for their children. Yoqueta is a teacher at a private Christian school where her daughter and two sons are students. The family shares rental housing in a neighborhood that is unsafe and poorly maintained.

Owning her own home will mean "safety, security, quiet, rest, a future that is bright." Yoqueta told Richmond Habitat. "I am a humble person, not proud, but I am thankful that things are getting better for my family."

Yoqueta is working to complete 10 financial and homeownership education classes, and monthly one-on-one budgeting sessions to make sure she has the tools she needs to be a successful homeowner. She is also working to complete 350 hours of volunteer time – helping to build her own home, other Habitat homes, or by working at our ReStore.

After she completes these program requirements, Yoqueta will purchase a safe, secure, energy- efficient home and pay an affordable mortgage, which will make her dream of home ownership a reality. This affordable mortgage will ensure that she pays no more than 25% of her income on housing.

Thank you for your commitment to our mission to build strength, stability, and self reliance through shelter in the Metro Richmond Area.

With Gratitude,

Jennifer O'Rourke, CFRE / VP of Resource Development

Church Family Update

BLESSED AND LOVED

On Sunday, October 12th, our church family gathered for a truly special moment — the baby blessing and dedication of Jack Vaden. Surrounded by loved ones, Josh and Nicole Vaden dedicated their son to the Lord, committing to raise him in faith and love.

Proud grandparents are Cindy and Russ Johnson, and Cathy and Tim Vaden. Aunt Lauren and Uncle Daniel were present as well. Family and friends witnessed with joy and gratitude as the congregation joined in prayer and blessing for baby Jack's life and future.

It was a beautiful reminder of God's faithfulness across generations and the strength of our church family. We are so thankful to celebrate this milestone and watch Jack grow in the love and grace of God.
